Parental Permission to Videotape

In an effort to provide your child and other children who are deaf or hard of hearing in NC with the highest quality educational program and services permission is requested to video tape your child. The Office of Education Services Resource Support Program and NC Early Intervention Program for Children who are Deaf or Hard of Hearing recognize several important benefits of video taping students.

- Self-Assessment of the Teacher
- Documentation of Student Progress
- Analysis of Student Performance
- Training Purposes

The video taped information will be used solely for the purposes listed above. No student's last name will appear on any materials used.
